

GRAPPENHALL CRICKET CLUB

Broad Lane, Grappenhall, Warrington, Cheshire, WA4 3ER. 01925 263497

CODE OF CONDUCT

To ensure that all members and their guests are aware of the standards expected of them, the following, outlines the main parameters of behaviour acceptable to the club.

1. Members shall treat all: other members, spectators, players and umpiring officials with respect.
2. Members shall treat the pavilion, ground and facilities of the club with respect. Dressing rooms, toilet facilities and bar areas shall be left clean and tidy.
3. Any equipment provided by the club for use before, during or after cricket related activities remains the property of the club and should be suitably looked after and maintained.
4. Should any member, guest or visitor cause any physical damage to grappers property, they will be charged in full to replace/repair the item.
5. Members shall behave with good manners and shall not use inappropriate or offensive language. Members should thank voluntary helpers for their services. (eg Tea ladies)
6. Members shall supervise and control the behaviour of their guests, children and pets, whilst on club premises, so that they do not interfere with the pleasure of members and do not damage the fabric of the club.
7. Members shall observe the instructions of bar staff and leave the premises promptly after licensing hours.
8. Members and accompanying adults shall set the correct example to junior players and junior individuals when participating in or supporting any cricket activity involving the club.
9. Electronic communications: email, mobile phone and internet correspondence shall not be used to transgress the required code of conduct.
10. Members are expected to observe the above code of conduct when visiting opposition clubs.

Anyone wishing to report a serious breach of this Code of Conduct should do so through any member of the Club's General Committee. The incident will initially be assessed by the Committee (or subset thereof) and if deemed appropriate may then be subjected to the Club's laid down 'Disciplinary Procedure'.
